JIM REEVES

Jim Reeves was a success in the hard commercial music industry because he had what so many search for but few find, originality. In an era when Rock and Roll, Rhythm and Blues and recording gimmicks monopolised such a large part of the recording business, the simple straightforward ballad artistry of Jim Reeves stood out from the rest.

No one can ever say the air crash on a wooded hillside in Tennessee made Jim Reeves popular, for at the time of his death he had two records in the Top Fifty in this country as well as hits in countries such as Norway and South Africa, and he had albums and singles firmly placed in the American country and national charts.

We have not written a biography of Jim Reeves because this has been done many times over in the various music papers and magazines, but we hope you will find enjoyment in this album dedicated to a truly Southern Gentleman.

They say you've found some-body new — but that won't stop my lovin' you

I just can't let you walk a-way — forget the love I had for you

Guess I could find some-body too — but I don't want no one but you

Oh, my heart aches just for you.
I would walk a thousand miles, I'd swim the seven seas.

But time must always have its way
And night must follow day,

I still have these memories all though we're far apart.
To see the twinkle in your eye, the dimple when you smile,

To chance we met, so soon to part. I wish there were some way,
Was count the stars in the Milky Way or the leaves upon the trees.
To
hold your hand, to touch your lips for just a little while. Wishful

Moderato

When all your loves have ended,
When all your friends have flown,
Who'd be around to want you

When all your loves have gone?
Only a fool would do it after the way you've done,

But how many fools would have you?

I know one.

This fool keeps wonderin' why he fell in love at all. But you might need this fool a-round in case you fall.

After the party's over and you've had your fill of fun, if you need a fool to forgive you, I know one.
You never know you might be lonely  When all your loves have missed

It wouldn't hurt to keep an extra fool on your list.  After your heart's been broken
And it needs a place to run,  If you'll take a fool who loves you,

I know one,  Yes, I know one,  I know one

Yes, I know one,  I know one

I found little ole you,

Little ole you, no bigger than a minute.

It's hard to believe this big World had you in it.

It's a fast life and everybody's lookin' so
There's so much to do it almost makes me dizzy.

In the middle of it all you appeared right out of the blue,

In this great big world I found little ole you.
